

Job Description

Chalet Host/Chef Premium Service

Chalet Elliot is "two chalets in one" – each wing has four bedrooms and sleeps 8 guests and the two wings can be joined together for a larger group of up to 16 guests. The chalet chefs must therefore both be individually capable of running a small chalet on their own for the times when the wings are separated but equally to work together as a team when booked by the larger groups. Hosting the chalet involves preparation of breakfast, afternoon tea and four course evening meals including canapes and a cheeseboard, cleaning and housekeeping, socialising with guests and generally looking after their needs during their stay. A fixed menu provided by us together with recipes and kitchen planning guidelines to make the work as easy as possible.
